

Breast Cancer Awareness among Women: A Comprehensive Study

Prof. Nirja Sharan

I/C Principal

St. Rock's College of Commerce and Science, Borivali (W), Mumbai, India

sharan.nirja10@gmail.com

Abstract: Bosom malignant growth stays a huge general wellbeing worry, with a large number of ladies around the world being analysed every year. Early discovery and opportune treatment are pivotal elements in further developing endurance rates and lessening the weight of the infection. This examination paper dives into the condition of bosom malignant growth mindfulness among ladies, looking at factors impacting their information and comprehension of the illness. It investigates the effect of mindfulness on ahead of schedule location and talks about the hindrances that frequently impede data dispersal. The paper likewise features fruitful techniques for upgrading bosom disease mindfulness and highlights the requirement for preceded with endeavours in teaching and enabling ladies. By revealing insight into the present status of bosom malignant growth mindfulness and proposing viable procedures, this exploration points to add to the continuous battle against bosom malignant growth, at last advancing ladies' wellbeing and prosperity.

Keywords: Breast, Cancer, Awareness, Risk