

Empowering Futures: Advancing Girl Child Education in India

Prof. Payal Mane

Asst. Professor

St. Rock's College of Commerce and Science, Borivali (W), Mumbai, India

Abstract: The main purpose of this research paper is to understand the factors that affect the girl child education. Improvement in the education and literacy skills of the girls are primarily based upon factors such as socio – economic, socio – cultural, educational levels of the parents and distance from school. These factors affect the participation of girls in schools and in enhancing their educational skills and abilities.

Keywords: Education, Literacy, Empowerment, Violence, Poverty.