

Role of Teachers in Inculcating Values among Students

Mandeep Singh Ahuja , Prof. Pradeep Mali and Mohd Anas Nazkani

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce, Mumbai, Maharashtra

Abstract: Values in education are set according to the ever-changing needs of the society and the nation. Education and teacher attempt to meet them. The family, school and society have important role in the individual build up and setting the life patterns of which the values is one of the major components. The teachers' role in value inculcation is immense and superb as he/she is the guardian of organizing classroom teaching learning environment. The paper discusses as how to assign the new roles to these social institutions for developing all dimensions of values in the learners for their integrated as well as differentiated growth.

Keywords: Values, Teacher Education, Erosion of Values