

Formulation and Evaluation of Medicated Herbal Kajal

Jalatkar Shivani Sanjay, Pendapwar Shraddha Babanrao, Dr. L. D. Hingane
Aditya Pharmacy College, Beed, Maharashtra, India

Abstract: Kajal is also called as Kohl and surma and used as an eye catcher. A revolutionary technique and novel are conceived of as the production of herbal kajal with medicinal plant for enhancement. The key benefits of these cosmetics items are greater patient conformity water resistant properties, durability and cost efficient shaping curve. Kajal is mainly used for eye makeup. The aim of the preparing formulation that is medicated herbal kajal is to treat eye inflammation and eliminate redness of the eye. Stability and patient friendly nature are the main advantages of these products. Prepared medicated herbal kajal are evaluated by anti-microbial activity.

Keywords: Kajal