

Revolutionizing Libraries: The Power of Digital Transformation

Gawande Shilpa

Librarian

MAEER's Saint Dnyaneshwar B.Ed College, Alandi (D), Pune, Maharashtra, India shilpagawande84@gmail.com

Abstract: Digital transformation is the process of adoption and implementation of digital technology. The purpose of this paper is to view the digital transformation in libraries. The paper describes the significance of digitisation which is very much important in today's scenario. The scope of digital libraries describes the areas where digital transformation may apply. Impact of digital transformation shows the significant positive changes in the library. The paper also highlight the barriers which libraries may face during the process of digital transformation.

Keywords: Digital Library, Digitization, digital technology, digital transformation, Academic Libraries