

Local Service Marketplace

Ms. M. Buvana¹, Rahul. R², Pushpanathan. G³, Rupeshwar. S⁴

Assistant Professor, Department of Information Technology¹

Third Year, Department Of Information Technology^{2,3,4}

Sri Shakthi Institute of Engineering and Technology (Autonomous), Coimbatore

Abstract: The Local Service Marketplace is a digital platform designed to connect local service providers (e.g., plumbers, electricians, tutors) with customers in their community. Built using the MERN stack, the platform emphasizes accessibility, trust, and economic empowerment for small-scale service providers. Key features include real-time booking, verified provider profiles, and community reviews. This project aims to reduce unemployment, improve service accessibility, and foster local economic growth.

Keywords: Local Service Marketplace

