

Gradual Development of Female Education

Dr. Chaitali Biswas

Assistant Professor, JHBC College

Abstract: The co-existence of male and female brings the completeness of the society. We are compelled to acknowledged the contribution of the female and male for the prosperity of the nation. In the utterance of rebel Poet Nazrul Islam, we may recollect the endless dedication of the female for the development of the country. Placing the female in the paramount niche the rebel poet echoed, "Jagater jato baro baro joy baro baro avijan. Mata bhagni o bandhuder tyage haiache mahiyan." Females are the results of the hundreds of years' medication.

Keywords: society

