

Indian Culture - A Noble Ideal of Universal Love

Dr. V. N. Chandrika¹ and Dr. P. S. Sreekala²

Department of English^{1,2}

Sree Sankara Vidyapeetom College, Perumbavoor, Kerala

Abstract: The objective of this extract is to go through of the some of the reflections on our great Indian culture. We often hear the phrase "Indian Culture". But when we speak of that, certainly we do not have in mind the details of our culture. We have a vision, a view point which is unique to Indian culture. It is a culture which rejects narrow mindedness. Indian culture means sympathy and compassion. It adores the heart as well as the intellect. Mother earth is the one who forgives all our wrongs to her. She is very generous. Indian culture tell us that the earth is like our mother and should not be neglected at any cost..

Keywords: Indian culture

REFERENCES

- [1]. Vireswaranda, Swami, Sri Rmakrishna Math, " Srimad Bhagavad Gita ",2011
- [2]. Desai, Priyavadan, Bhavan's, " Bhagavad Gita, Encyclopedia of Management principles and Scientific Living ", 2010
- [3]. Viswanathan, T.R, Bhavban's, " Snathan Dharma Eternal Religion ", 2000
- [4]. Guruji, Sane, Bhavasn's, " Bharatiya Samskriti ", 1999.